1. ROLL CALL – Lian Obrey, Rachael Franco, Nancy Codeanne, Bruce McDermott

2. APPROVAL OF MINUTES – Motion: Obrey, 2nd McDermott – 4-0-0

3. COMMUNICATIONS – Reviewed previous topics members were going to seek answers to:

- Rachael – Reviewed Grants and will need to speak with Finance Director regarding how to apply. Will also check with Library.
 - Clean up day: Meet at 8:30 am at the Sr. Center. The building will be open, grabbers, garbage bags, and vests will be there for us to use. Public Works will collect garbage bags Monday, and retrieve loaned items from Sr. Center.
 - Rachael will create maps for groups to clean up. Current groups who have emailed that they will attend are: Riverfront Childrens Center, Rotary, Girl and Boy Scouts, The Arc, and individuals.
- Lian – Chelsea Groton stated they would clean up across from their location. She will provide water at clean up day.
- Roscoe – has not gained full info regarding Rt. 117 & Rt. 1 intersection.
- Joan – Will not be able to attend Clean Up Groton Day as she has an event with GOSA
- Dana & Nancy – Will check around for donations for refreshments and prizes
- Nancy – handed out 18 flyers to churches, and would like to get the Beautification Committee on the Groton TV and Mystic/Noank Neighbors magazine.
- Shirley – came up with the Mountain Laurel as a signature plant (fits many of the criteria), would like for her to find two more so we can have Groton vote on which plant they would like as the signature plant.
